LINC UP: The caravanner's guide to South Lincolnshire

From fishing lakes to a round of golf, enjoying rural surroundings or watching red kites soar on the thermals above Forestry Commission woodland, South Lincolnshire has much to offer for caravanners. We have chosen some of the stand-out sites and hidden gems for those who appreciate the freedom to go where they please, and park up where the whim takes them.

WOODLAND WATERS, ANCASTER

01400 230888
info@woodlandwaters.co.uk

Set in a beautiful wooded valley covering 72 acres mid-way between Grantham and Sleaford, this idyllic fishing and camping park caters for all your holiday needs. Appealing to couples and families alike who seek a peaceful holiday in picturesque surroundings with woodland paths.

Woodland Waters offers five well stocked fishing lakes, luxury lodges, park home lodges and a caravan and camping area, which is positioned to capture the best views of the 14-acre specimen lake. The caravan and camping areas are equipped with an amenity block, laundry and disabled facilities, a children's play area and a picnic area.

LAND ROVER BURGHLEY HORSE TRIALS

www.burghley-horse.co.uk

As one of our major sporting events, the autumn event represents a very special opportunity for caravanners. Its caravan membership is the ideal way for two people to be able to enjoy all four days of this leading equestrian event, and savour up to six days holiday in a stunning location. The caravan park is situated in the tranquil environs of the Burghley Park Golf Club with enviable proximity to the event and onsite catering in the clubhouse. There are no facilities open outside of these dates, and the caravan membership gets booked up very quickly
